

Trail 10

Village trail of Saxlingham Nethergate, Shelton and Denton

Summary

This tour includes brilliant and interesting examples of stained glass covering a period from the 15th to the 17th century.

Highlights:

- Earliest Stained glass in a Norfolk church (Saxlingham Nethergate)
- One of the most impressive collections of 16th / 17th fragments remaining in East Anglia (Denton)
- Some of the county's best examples of early 16th century glass painting (Shelton)

For additional information please download the individual fact sheets for each church

Saxlingham Nethergate

Address: St Mary the Virgin, Saxlingham Nethergate, Norfolk, NR15 1TD

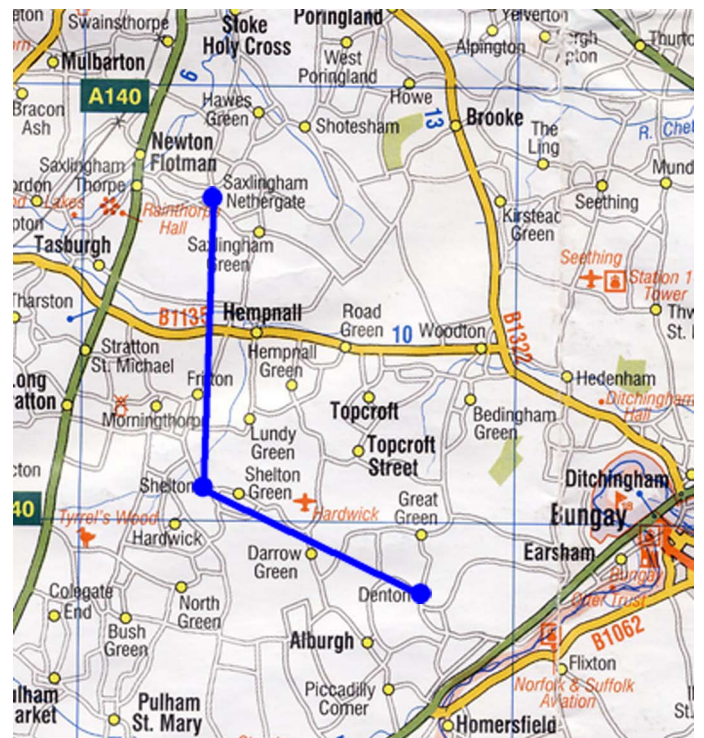

Visiting: Normally open daily, however, always check before making a special trip

St Mary Shelton

Address: St Mary, Shelton, NR15 2SD

Visiting: Normally open daily, however, always check before making a special trip

Denton

Visiting: Normally open daily, however, always check before making a special trip

Address: St Mary, Denton, Norfolk IP20 0AD

