

Trail 11

Village trail of East Harling, Garboldisham and Banham

Summary

This tour combines some of the finest examples in the county of both 15th century and Victorian stained glass.

Highlights:

- The stunning 15C East window of East Harling
- The works of national importance produced by the Victorian craftsmen at Garboldisham

For additional information please download the individual fact sheets for each church

Garboldisham

Visiting : Normally open daily, however, always check before making a special trip

Address : St John the Baptist, Garboldisham, Diss, Norfolk , IP22 2SE

Banham

Visiting: Normally open daily, however, always check before making a special trip

Address: St Mary the Virgin, The Village Green
Banham, Norfolk, NR16 2HN

East Harling

Visiting : Normally open 10am – 4pm during the summer months, however, always check before making a special trip.

Address :
St Peter & St Paul , East Harling,
Norfolk NR16 2NA

See more stained glass at our web site:
www.norfolkstainedglass.co.uk